Welcome to JWOC 2019

The orienteering clubs OK Pan Aarhus and Silkeborg OK, along with the cities of Silkeborg and Aarhus, Naturstyrelsen Søhøjlandet (the local forestry authority) and the Danish Orienteering Federation would like to welcome everyone to the Junior World Orienteering Championships 2019.

We hope all competitors, leaders and supporters will enjoy memorable experiences during their stay in Lake District Denmark.

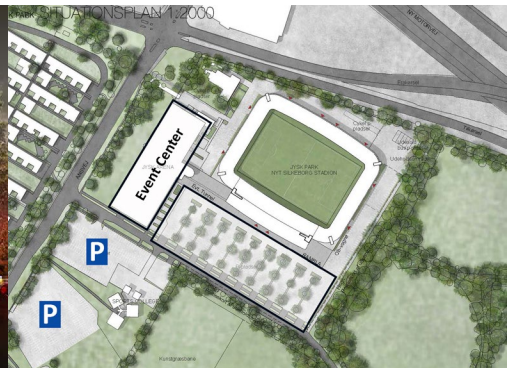

Host City and Event Centre

The JWOC 2019 will take place in the breathtaking surroundings of Lake District Denmark, with 224 sq km of both technically and physically demanding continental terrain.

The Event Centre is Jysk Arena in Silkeborg, a major sports arena with easy access from the motorway and great parking conditions. Accommodation will be boarding schools within 1 km of the Event Centre. In addition there are numerous hotels, scout centres, youth hostels and campsites in the area.

Distance from the Event Centre to the city centre of Silkeborg is 2-3 km.

Infrastructure

Travelling to and from Silkeborg is easy. There are 3 international airports within 1.5 hours' drive, and a domestic airport less than 30 mins away with frequent connections from Copenhagen Airport.

A brand new motorway connects Aarhus and Silkeborg in 30 minutes and runs right by the Event Centre.

Training Opportunities

Each year, OK Pan and Silkeborg OK organise competitions in terrain that is representative of the types of terrain to be used at JWOC2019.

A 4-6 day training camp will be organised at the beginning of August 2018.

In May/June 2019, competitions will be held in both the Aarhus and Silkeborg areas. In this region there are numerous forests with terrain relevant for the JWOC forest distances.

Nations wanting to organise additional training in the area should contact the event organisation.
